FAMILY COUNSELING CENTER:

Under the FCC scheme, counseling, referral and rehabilitative services to women victims who are in moral danger within the family or society at large including those affected by disputes, marital discord or maladjustment is provided free of charge. The Service is provided with the help of qualified professional psychological counselors.

CONDENSED COURSES EDUCATION FOR WOMEN:

The Scheme of Condensed Courses of Education was initiated by CSWB in 1958 to cater to the needs of adult girls / women who could not join mainstream education system or were school dropouts. The scheme aims to provide educational opportunities to girls / women above the age of 15 years along with additional inputs of skill development /vocational training.

The main focus of the scheme is to ensure that contents of the course are need-based and modified according to local requirement, simultaneously targeting various stages of educational levels of primary / middle / high school and Matric / secondary level courses. The programme also aims at instilling confidence among adult women through education making them able citizens. Selection of candidates is required to be done by a committee comprising the institution and the Principal / representative of a local government school of the area where the course is to be held. The Scheme is being implemented through Voluntary Organisations and educational institutions, having requisite infrastructure and experience in the field of women / social development and education across the country.

D.AWARENESS GERERATION PROJECTS FOR RURAL AND POOR WOMEN:

The State Social Welfare Board has a unique programme of Awareness Generation camps for rural and poor women through which a great deal of useful information is imparted to women in day camps by trainers and resource persons. As a part of its syllabi, the Awareness Generation Programme has been imparting health information to the women who attend their camps. This includes hygiene, sanitation, health care of infants and children, low cost nutritious recipes and RCH.

E.RAJIVGANDHI NATIONAL CRECHE SCHEME:-

With increasing employment opportunities for women and the growing need to supplement household income, more and more women are entering the job market. With the breaking up of the joint family system and the increasing number of nuclear families, working women need support in terms of quality, substitute care for their young children while they are at work. Creche and Day Care Services are not only required by working mothers but also for women belonging to poor families, who require support and relief for childcare as they struggle to cope with the burden of activities, within and outside the home.

The Rajiv Gandhi National Creche Scheme was revamped in 2006. The present scheme will provide assistance to NGOs for running crèches for infants (0-6 years) and would provide assistance to ensure sleeping facilities, healthcare, supplementary nutrition, immunization, etc. for running a creche for 25 infants for eight hours 100% Funds are being provided by Central Social Welfare Board as Grant-in-aid for the implementation of programmes by Voluntary Organizations.

There is no requirement of funds from the State Government for the programmes.
